Present : "Mark Helliwell"

Acclaimed Landscape Photographer

Thursday 7th February 2019 8.00pm

"An Approach To Landscape Photography"

Venue : St Mary's Church Centre, Moss Lane, Sale Cheshire M33 6GD

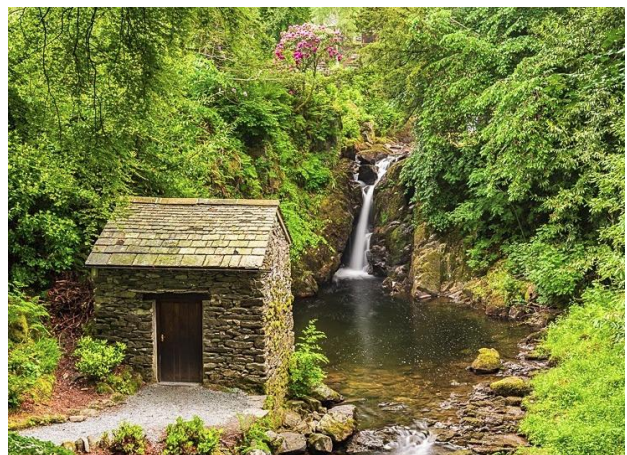

Mark Helliwell is a semi-professional landscape photographer living on the western edge of the Peak District in Macclesfield. In his captivating talk, Mark will present us with an illustration of the power of light in Landscape photography, and the way in which lighting, can inject mood and drama into an image.

He will take us from the initial visualisation of his images, through to the final image, with many outstanding example of his work as illustrations.

His images have featured regularly in the UK's leading landscape photography magazine - Outdoor Photography - and in 2016 and 2017 he has had images shortlisted in their international landscape competitions.

He is without doubt one of the most talented Landscape workers in the country and his lecture is a feast for landscape photographers eyes.
