

Sale Festival 2010 Photographic Competition

As part of its celebrations for Festival Week, Sale Festival 2010 is running a Photographic Competition for keen Amateur Photographers on the theme of “Water – In all it’s Forms”

Water. It’s one of the most abundant chemicals that makes-up our planets’ ecosystem. It’s universal. It’s everywhere. Not only does it cover 2/3 of the earth’s surface, but it flows in rivers and waterways, and can be locked away for thousands of years in icebergs and glaciers. And that’s to say nothing of the fact that it also makes up over half of our bodies, and dominates our daily lives, be it with the weather, our cleanliness, our recreational activities, or all the drinks we drink. All life on Earth depends on it, and the truth is, we simply couldn’t live without it.

So send us your best pictures of Water in all its forms, whether it’s the Ocean, a River, a Canal, a snow covered panorama or simply a dripping tap, and you could be one of this year’s competition winners. The scope is endless.

Amateur Photographers who would like to enter the competition should submit up to 4 prints to Sale Waterside Arts Centre to arrive no later than Tuesday 1st June.

Our Judge for this year’s competition will once again be local Wedding & Portrait Photographer Ray Kearney whose shop/studio is on Cross St in Sale.

The top 20 winning prints, together with a selection of the runners up will take pride of place in an Exhibition to be mounted in the Gallery Bar at Sale Waterside for the 10 weeks after the competition judging. So you can judge your own efforts against the other entrants!

The winner of the Senior Competition will receive a fabulous prize of £100, which will be officially presented to them during Festival Week, with runners up prizes of £50 for second place and £25 for third place. In addition to the Senior Competition, there is also a Junior Section for Photographers up to 16, the winner of which will receive a prize of £50.
