

Sale Festival 2013 Photographic Competition

As part of its celebrations for Festival Week, Sale Festival 2013 is running a Photographic Competition for keen Amateur Photographers on the theme of

“Bodies In Motion”

We would love you to enter the competition, and with a theme like this, the opportunities are vast.

But "Bodies In Motion", what does it mean ?? Well basically, it's anything that moves. It could be a person, an animal, an aircraft, a car, flowing water, or anything else you care to think of that moves. Even your mate in the pub drinking a pint of Boddies !! They are all Bodies In Motion !

Sport epitomizes Bodies in Motion, and the possibilities are limitless - such as a football or player in football, or a boat rowing in a race or a horse in racing. All great examples of Bodies In Motion.

Wherever you go in Britain, you'll find examples of Bodies In Motion and you won't have to travel far to encounter great shots - and we would love to see them. So come on, get snapping away, and get your entries in.

Amateur Photographers who would like to enter the competition should submit up to 4 prints to Sale Waterside Arts Centre to arrive no later than Tuesday 28th May.

The top 20 winning prints, together with a selection of the runners up will take pride of place in an Exhibition to be mounted in the Gallery Bar at Sale Waterside for the 4 weeks after the competition judging. So you can judge your own efforts against the other entrants!

The winner of the Senior Competition will receive a fabulous prize of £100, which will be officially presented to them during Festival Week, with runners up prizes of £50 for second place and £25 for third place.

In addition to the Senior Competition, there is also a Junior Section for Photographers up to 16, the winner of which will receive a prize of £50.
