As part of its celebrations for Festival Week, Sale Festival 2019 is running a Photographic Competition for keen Amateur Photographers on the theme of

“The Living City”

Sale, and many other local Towns and Cities are bustling vibrant places, with all manner of life happening 24 hours a day. Be it hurrying to work on the tram, shopping in the town centre, having a drink in the pub, fishing on the canal, or just watching the world go by. Living in a modern city can take on an endless number of guises.

Photographers of all ages are invited to capture the essence of the theme by taking part in this Photographic Competition aimed at picturing the very best of The Living City in both Sale, or any other lively metropolis.

The photographs should reflect your favourite ideas of life in The Living City, be it people, events, or even the wildlife that now inhabits many of our towns and cities.

Amateur Photographers who would like to enter the competition should submit up to 4 prints to Sale Waterside Arts Centre to arrive no later than Tuesday 28th May 2019

An esteemed Judge will judge the competition during the week prior to Festival Week, and the winning prints and a selection of the runners up will form part of an exhibition to be held at Sale Waterside Arts Centre during Festival Week, starting 7 June and for the following 4 weeks.

The winner of the Senior Competition will receive a fabulous prize of £100, which will be presented to them during Festival Week, with runners up prizes of £50 for 2nd place and £25 for 3rd place.

There is also a Junior Section for Photographers up to 16, with the winner receiving a prize of £50, and a second place prize of £25.
